RANGER AND SCOUT CAMP PLANS READY

Torrance Boys Get Opportunity for Fine Outing

Plans were announced last week for a camp at Portuguese Harbor, seven miles up the coast from San Pedro, beginning Monday, April 14, and closing Saturday, April 19—the first period for Boy Rangers and the second period for Boy Scouts.

Torrance Rangers who are planning to be present at the camp will leave in trucks on Monday morning at 7:30 from in front of the high school, joining the San Pedro party in San Pedro and going to camp with them. Adult leadership will be present on the trip to camp.

Torrance Scouts who are planning to be present at the Scout camp will leave in trucks from in front of the high school on Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, joining the San Pedro party in San Pedro and going to camp with them. On arrival in camp the trucks will reload with the Torrance Rangers, who will arrive home late on Tuesday afternoon. There will be adult leadership on the going and returning trip on Tuesday.

On the breaking up of the Scout camp on Saturday morning the Torrance scouts present will return to San Pedro with the San Pedro scouts and to Torrance by bus or interurban car. All meals will be furnished while in camp. The cost of the camp for the Rangers will be $1 per boy, and for the Scouts $2 per boy. Necessary equipment will include bedding, soap, towel, comb, tooth brush, tooth paste or powder, canteen and flashlight. Every boy going to camp should take a heavy sweater or coat to wear in the evenings. Scouts are requested not to wear their uniforms. Both Rangers and Scouts should wear clothing appropriate to a camp of this kind. Tents will be provided in which to sleep, and the entire camp will be ready for occupancy on the arrival of the party on Monday morning.

Want Information On Training Camps? Consult C. C. Baker

The war department announces the holding of citizens' military training camps at Del Monte, Calif., for infantry, cavalry, field artillery, corps of engineers and signal corps, and at Fort Winfield Scott, San Francisco, for coast artillery, from June 25 to July 25, 1924. These camps are conducted under the national defense act, and are held primarily to interest young men in the importance and value of military training. The students will be given opportunity for physical training and development, through military exercises and athletics under the direction of experts. Students are furnished transportation to and from camp, meals, quarters, laundry of camp clothing, medical attention, uniforms and full equipment. Recreational facilities will be many and varied. The health and moral surroundings of the students will be carefully safeguarded. The parents of a healthy, enthusiastic boy who wants to attend a training camp should not hesitate to encourage his desire, for he will be well cared for.

The age limits for students are 17 to 24 years. The general requirements are the ability to read and write English, good moral character, and the ability to pass a moderate physical examination. Except for the higher courses, previous military training is not required, nor does attendance at camp constitute any present or future contract of enlistment in the United States army. Physical examinations may be obtained free of cost at numerous places. Application blanks and full and exact information regarding these camps may be obtained by prospective students or by parents by addressing the Chief of Staff, 91st Division, The Presidio, San Francisco, Calif.

Further information may be obtained from C. C. Baker of the Dominguez Land corporation.

SURPRISE MR. LOCKE

William Locke of Portola avenue was agreeably surprised when a few friends dropped in last Tuesday evening in honor of his birthday. Cards and dancing were the evening's diversions.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. George Huntington, Mr. and Mrs. James Geary, of Gardena; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Locke, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Wilkes, and Jonas Bates.

P.-T.A. ROUND TABLE

The regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher association round table was postponed from last Wednesday to tomorrow, Wednesday, April 2.

These meetings, held at the high school auditorium, are proving exceedingly interesting and instructive. The problems of mother and teacher are discussed, and usually solved.

Bring yours to the round table tomorrow at 2:30 p.m.

CAFE REPORTEE

The waitress, very much out of sorts, sailed up to the table at which sat the grouchy customer. She slammed down the cutlery, snatched a napkin from a pile and tossed it in front of him.

Then, striking a furious pose, she glared at him.

"Whatcha want?" she snapped.

"Couple of eggs," growled the diner.

"How ya want 'em?"

"Just like you are."

SPOTLIGHTS ON SPORT

by JACK KEENE

It's just about a foregone conclusion that Edward Trowbridge Collins will not figure in any baseball trade before or in the coming American league free-for-all. Frank Chance's illness, while regrettable, has served one good purpose—that of ending the orgy of rumors regarding a deal involving the great second sacker. The White Sox owners would be little short of loony to allow Collins to depart so long as there remains some likelihood of Chance being unable to assume or retain for long active management of the team. Johnny Evers and Ed Walsh, now on the general staff of the Soxlets, are capable of taking over the reins, but in view of the criticism of the club's action in not naming Collins manager instead of Chance, it seems probable that Collins will follow Chance whenever the Peerless One steps out, voluntarily or involuntarily.

Collins should be given the place the next time a change is made. The club should show some gratitude for the nine years of valiant service Collins has given the Chicago team.

The American league race is just as good as settled right now, if we take the word of Ed Barrow, business manager of the Yanks. With no intention of overestimating the strength of the Hug-Me-Tights, Barrow says the Yankmen will repeat again. He also says the Tigers will finish second, the Indians third, and the Browns fourth. He rates the St. Louis team that high on the supposition that Sisler plays first regularly. The White Sox, Athletics, Red Sox and Washington will finish in the order named (please keep the news from Clark Griffith). If Sisler is forced to manage the Brown team from the bench it will land no higher than sixth, opines Barrow.

Barrow may have the right dope. But think of the fun we'd miss if they called off the season!

Oh, dear dear! We're just all broken up. We can't get over how that cruel New York boxing commission suspends (oh, awful word!) Tex Rickard's boxing club for one week (seven days) for not being nice in promoting the Pancho Villa-Georgie Marks battle in Madison Square Garden, New York city, recently.

Seems that poor Mr. Rickard was led to believe Marks could fight at 112 pounds when he couldn't—the mean thing. The fight was billed as one for the flyweight title and this little deception on somebody's part put the fritz on whatever real chance there was of the crown-changing heads.

No effort was made to prevent Mr. Rickard from devoting that week to promoting another battle, however.

Big Bill Muldoon, czar of boxing in New York state, has announced that boozing a fight must cease. There's a chance for the reformers. Somebody could collect himself a nice salary as secretary of a Society to Prohibit Boozing.

Owner Garry Herrmann and Manager Pat Moran have given up hope of landing either Curtis Walker of the Phillies or Carson Bigbee of the Pirates, after numerous offers for both gents. The come-back in both cases was: "The deal's on if you give us Roush." That automatically called the deals off as far as the Red leaders (no connection with Trotsky and his crew) were concerned.
